RICHMOND IS DISAPPOINTED

President Announces He Cannot Visit The State Fair.

REGRET EXPRESSED.

Executive States That He Will Be Unable to Leave His Desk in Washington.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 26.—Although practical assurance was given after a conference at the White House with Senator Swanson on Wednesday that President Wilson would visit Richmond during Fair week, it was definitely announced yesterday that the President finds it impossible to come. The news came as a decided surprise to the Virginia members in Congress who had discussed the trip with the President and had drawn form his remarks and evidences of interest the conclusion that he would accept the invitation.

Congressman Montague was informed of the President's decision when he called at the White House yesterday to discuss with him the matter of fixing the exact date for his visit. President Wilson expressed his deep regrets, and gave Mr. Montague a letter addressed to President Peters, of the Common Council, who headed the committee that extended the city's formal invitation. Mr. Montague dispatched the letter by special delivery, accompanying it with a note expressing his regret at the failure of the plan to secure the President's attendance.

The President's letter, which was received last night, follows:

The White House.

Hon. R. L. Peters, Richmond, Va.

Mr. Dear Mr. Peters.— I have been thinking a great deal about the invitation conveyed to me so kindly by the comimttee of which you are chairman to visit the City of Richmond on the occasion of the State Fair, because I wanted most sincerely to accept that invitation if it were possible for me to do so consistently with my public duties here, and with the assurances I have given in my directions that I would not divert my attention from the business in hand here.

With the greatest reluctance, I come to the conclusion that I ought not at present leave my desk in Washington. I am promising myself that at some early occasion in the future I may have the great pleasure of visiting Virginia and showing my admiration and affection for her people.

Cordially and sincerely yours,

WOODROW WILSON.

The President's inability to accept the city's invitation brings general regret. The disappointment is all the more keen in view of the favorable turn that the matter took on Wednesday, when President Wilson went so far as to discuss with Senator Swanson the facilities in Richmond for an indoor address, indicating that he would like to discuss the currency question.

Senator Swanson made several trips to the White House in the interest of the city's invitation, and shared with the Virginia delegation in the general regret. To the city, as well as to the thousands who had hoped to see the President at the fair, the announcement carries disappointment. The only ray of hope is contained in the President's assurance that he will take an early opportunity to visit Virginia.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The White Star liner Olympic sailed from Queenstown yesterday without taking on board 200 passengers and 1,500 sacks of mail bound for New York. The passengers and mail were conveyed to the Olympic, which was outside of Roaches Point, but the sea was too rough to make the transfer, and the captain of the liner refused to enter Queenstown harbor.

A fine of $500 and costs and a sentence of 90 days in jail—the maximum penalty for reckless automobile driving—was imposed on Edward Ross, a chauffeur, by Justice Sayler in the Western Police Court, of Baltimore, yesterday afternoon. It was the first time the maximum penalty has been imposed in a case of this kind, and the justice said he intended henceforth to deal severely with all "joy riders."

A terrible domestic tragedy, involving the death of two small children, has occurred at Parkacz, Hungary. A peasant named Steve Jvakovick had hidden some bank notes under a cushion, where his 3-year-old son found them, and tore one of them up. Jvakovic was seized with a fit of ungovernable passion, and taking an ax he chopped off his son's head. The mother, who was bathing the baby in the next room, heard the noise and came in just as the child's head rolled at her feet. She fainted and the baby, who was left in the bath was drowned. Jvakovic was arrested.

Five prisoners headed by the notorious "Big Bill" Green made a desperate attempt to escape from Sing Sing, yesterday, and were recaptured only after a thrilling chase in the Hudson by keepers in motor boats.

Displaying remarkable nerve in the face of danger, Policeman C. L. Burton, of the Sixth Precinct, Washington, yesterday afternoon after being shot through the right arm, by a negro named Charles Clutch, resisting arrest, overpowered his assailand locked him up, and then went to Casualty Hospital and had his wound dressed.

That crime is not only a right, but a duty, is the sentiment expressed in Paris by Mme Maitrejean, the famous anarchist, in an article contributed to the Matin. Mme. Maitrejean is the young woman who figured prominently in the sensational trial of the notorious Bonnet band of criminals, and who was acquitted of the charge of complicity in the acts of the brigands.

Rather than risk a repetition of the riotous scenes witnessed Wednesday in the lower House of the Tennessee legislature, when mob rule prevailed in a bitter protest against the arbitrary adjournment by Speaker Stanton, who charged that gunmen were attempting to pick him off from the galleries, the regular Democrats yesterday refused to proceed with the business of the body unless the floor and the galleries were cleared of the armed prison guards and hired gunmen. The corridors of the State House were packed with uniformed police sent there by Mayor Howse to protect the life of speaker Stanton and Floor Leader McFarland, but the speaker refused to permit the guard to remain and ordered that a committee which he had appointed, see to it that all police and gunmen were forced to leave the state house.

Soon after the passage by the Baltimore City Council last night of a stringent race segregation ordinance a fierce race riot broke out between whites and negroes over the invasion earlier in the day at the 1300 block of North Mosher street by a negro family. In the course of the rioting three white persons were injured and much damage done to property. The battle raged for more than three hours. After scores of white men and boys had bombarded the house occupied by the negroes from the roofs, windows, and steps of the houses on the opposite side of the street, hurling stones and bricks and firing marbles from slings, a crowd of negroes began their work of retaliation upon the homes of the whites. The windows of every house in the block were smashed, and plate-glass windows of stores were also smashed.

BANDITS HOLD UP RAILWAY TRAIN

Posse Follows in Extra Train--Exchange of Volleys.

AN EXCITING CHASE.

After Safe Blowing Engineer Compelled to Speed Over Tracks of Queen and Crescent.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 26.— Speding madly through the swamps and marshes of Alabama, two trains, one a bandit special, the other manned by a sheriff's posse, are racing, disregarding switches, shaking bridges, steep grades, and roadbeds that wind and curve dangerously.

The engineer of the first train, a locomotive and two express cars, cowers under the pistols of wto desperate highwaymen, urging him to greater speed to outdistance the black pursuer that looms up, ever closer, in the rear. From the express car occassionally there darts a tongue of flame, answered always by a volley from the pursuers.

It is the thrilling chase of a gang of masked bandits who boarded the New York,, New Orleans express of the Queen and Crescent Railroad, near Tuscaloosa early today, threw the safes from the express car and were attempting to blow them when the posse came upon them.

Two bandits boarded the train at Bibbville, and compelled the engineer and fireman to cut off the two express cars from the rest of the train. Other bandits then entered the cars and the engineer was ordered to go ahead at top speed. This part of the train dashed through Tuscaloosa. Sheriff Palmer, at Birmingham was notified and immediately set out in search of the robbers.

When the gang boarded the train after it had stopped at a block signal, Express Messenger Kelly was covered and shots were fired into the express car. Clerk Saunders was cut by flying glass when a bullet crashed through a window. Bullets whizzed about the heads of Clerks Phillips and Poole. Then safes were thrown off the train and two charges were exploded under them.

Arriving at Bibbville, Sheriff Palmer ordered a switch engine turned over to him. With the posse he then climbed aboard and set out in pursuit of the robbers. For miles the switch engine raced after the fleeing bandits on the detached portion of the train.

Palmer fired several shots at the bandits as they fled and the fire was returned from the train. The fireman was put off the engine, but under cover of a revolver Engineer Daniels was forced to throw on high speed for the getaway.

SLAYER ADJUDGED INSANE.

Man Who Killed Helpmate and Tried to Burn Body Crazy.

Rockingham, N. C., Sept. 26.—Geo. S. Nance, who slew his wife in a local hotel in Hamlet on the afternoon of August 15, and afterward tried to burn the body and the hotel building, was examined Wednesday afternoon by a lunacy commission appointed by the Superior Court in session in Rockingham and pronounced insane.

He was carried to the State prison at Raleigh and placed in the criminal insane department, where he will spend the remainder of his natural life, except in the event he should regain his sanity, when he will be placed on trial for the murder of his wife.

Among those who composed the board of alienists making the examination were Superintendent McCampbell, of the State hospital for the insane at Morganton, and Dr. Elbert Anderson, superintendent of the Central hospital for the insane at Raleigh.

(Mrs. Nance was formerly a resident of Alexandria.)

DEEP MURDER MYSTERY.

Police, Undertaker, Reporter And Coroner Seek to Solve Case.

Intense excitement was caused at police headquarters at 11 o'clock today by a telephone message that a woman had just been murdered at 909 Princess street. Instructions were received from Coroner Moore not to touch the body until he should arrive on the scene. Sergeant Scott and Officer Kern were dispatched to the scene of the murder, and with a newspaper man pressed an automobile into service and made the run to the house, at a rate that smashed all speed records.

Arriving at the house, a small frame building, the officers found it locked with window blinds shut. A search of the premises revealed no one and people of the vicinity had not heard any disturbance. As the officers were preparing to force their way into the building an old colored woman, Martha Johnson, appeared on the scene with Windsor Demaine, of the firm of W. Demaine & Sons, undertakers. She told the officers that a few minutes before a man had appeared in her house and had shot her sister and that the body was lying on the second floor in a pool of blood.

In a few seconds Drs. Penn and Hopking arrived at the house and by that time the woman had found the keys and opened the doors. The police officers rushed up the narrow stairs, followed by the newspaper man, the doctors and the undertaker but found all the rooms on the second floor empty and no trace of any body or signs that a dastardly murder had been committed.

The old woman declared that some one must have entered the house and stolen the body while she was gone to the undertaking establishment. Later she was removed to police headquarters and tomorrow a commission will be held to inquire into her sanity. Her sister is an inmate of the state asylum in Petersburg.

ENABLING ACT.

Southwest Nominees Are Pledged to Cast Votes for Measure.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 26.—Legislative candidates in Southwest Virginia are putting forth the enabling act and tax question as the chief topics of their campaigns and from what can be learned a majority of them favor submitting the liquor problem to the vote of the people.

Several candidates have been nominated within the last few days. Henry Meade, a Republican, is opposing C. W. Grant, a prominent Democrat of Russell county, for the house of delegates.

L. P. Summers, who was nominated by the Republicans of the First senatorial district, composed of Smyth and Washington counties and the city of Bristol, is pledged to vote for the enabling act. The convention which was held in Abingdon Monday also nominated A. Gray Gilmer, of Bristol, and Dr. John Remine, of Washington county, for the house of delegates. They are also pledged to vote for the enabling act.

A. T. Lincoln, a prominent Democrat of Smyth county, who is a nominee for the house of delegates, says he is a state-wide Prohibitionist and will vote for the enabling act if the opportunity presnts itself.

Hugh M. Addington was nominated Tuesday afternoon by the Republicans of Scott county as a candidate for the house of delegates. He favors the enabling act, as does L. P. Summers, of Abingdon, who was nominated at a convention of Republicans in Abingdon Monday to oppose B. F. Buchanan, of Marion, for the state senate.

Orren Lewis Stearnes, a popular Democrat of Salem, who was recently nominated to suceed the late Colonel A. M. Bowman in the house of delegates, will also vote for the enabling act and will fight for changes in the present system of taxation.

Robert L. Pennington, of Jonesville, Lee county, nominee for the house of delegates, also favors the enabling act. He is an influential Democrat, and favors dealing with the tax question at the next session of the legislature.

John W. Chalkley, one of the most prominent Democrats of this section of the state, was nominated Saturday afternoon at a convention at Wise Courthouse as a candidate to succeed himself in the Virginia house of delegates.

BOY IS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER

Thomas Evans Sends Bullet into Heart of Theodore Evans.

HAD A BORROWED GUN

Two Colored Boys Were Hunting For Birds When the Gun Was Discharged.

Theodore Evans, colored, 11 years old, was shot and almost instantly killed shortly before noon today by his brother, Thomas Evans, 14 years old. The boys are sons of Phillip Evans, a janitor. The elder boy claims the shooting was accidental. He discharged a rifle at a bird in a clump of bushes, not knowing his brother was behind them. Thomas upon hearing Theodore scream ran to him and attempted to get him home, but the boy having been shot in the breast, the ball passing through his heart, he soon died.

Thomas was later brought to the station house by Sergeants Wilkinson and Scott who had repaired to the scene, after which Officer Ferguson notified Dr. Yates, coroner of Alexandria county.

The boy who caused the death of his brother manifested considerable distress when he realized what he had done. He said what worried him most was the fact that he had told a lie in order to obtain possession of the rifle. It is owned by Thomas Arrington, and the boy procured it by telling him his father had sent for it.

After obtaining possession of the weapon (.22 calibre) Thomas and his brother Theodore started out to shoot birds. They had entered Duncan's field, on the Mushpot road, near the confines of this city, when the shooting occurred.

Theodore attempted to run after having been struck by the bullet, but he almost immediately collapsed, when Thomas ran to tell his mother what had occurred.

Dr. Penn was summoned, and examined the wound after the boy had expired.

FOREST FIRES QUENCHED.

Danger Over in Four California Counties After $1,000,000 Damage.

San Francisco, Sept. 26.—After burning for three days with damage to timber and agricultural lands estimated at $1,000,000, forest fires in four counties of central California were reported under control.

In Santa Cruz county, where only desperate work saved the Hercules Powder Works, smouldering embers are being watched on the hillsides.

WILD BEASTS CAUSE SCARE.

Escape From Menagerie And Terrorize Wide Area of Territory.

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Terror reigns among the population of Styria, Austria, arising from the depredations of a lioness and her cubs and a number of wolves and hyennas which recently escaped from a menagerie. The wild beats have established their lair in the centre of a region of inaccessible mountain country extending over 400 square miles, and have devoured 200 cattle and 400 sheep.

The inhabitants will not allow their children to go to school in the remote districts, in one of which a country policeman has been missing for some time and is believed to have been killed. It is feared the beasts of prey, after the herds have been taken from the mountain pastures in autumn, will invade the inhabited districts in search of food.

CONDUCTORS OWN AUTOS.

Cited by Railroad Official as Evidence of Opportunity Offered.

New York, Sept. 26.—Two railroad officials who have risen from the ranks yesterday told the federal arbitrators in the controversy of the Eastern railroads with their conductors and trainmen that railroad work offers unequaled opportunities. This was the second day devoted to testimony on behalf of the railroads.

E. R. Hewitt, assistant trainsmaster on the Bessemer and Lake Erie, said that, far from being overworked, some of the conductors on his road had time to spare to run their own automobiles. Mr. Hewitt was at one time a brakeman and conductor and later chairman of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Trainmen and of the Order of Railway Conductors.

"The reason trainmen west of Chicago get more money," he said, "is that in the west the territory is so desolate that the railroads must pay more to get the men. I do not think there is any difference in the actual work in the two territories."

The second witness was John Patterson, trainmaster of the Pittsburgh Division of the Pennsylvania. His opinion was that railroading offered more money and greater opportunities to beginners than other pursuits requiring equal skill and knowledge.

Snow fell yesterday at Plain View, Tex., accompanying a cold norther which is sweeping over the panhandle section of Texas. The snow accompanied a fine, cold drizzle. The temperature has dropped to 45. Heavy sleet is reported in eastern New Mexico.

IMPROVEMENT OF FAIRFAX ROADS

New Work to Extend 30 Miles if Bond Issue Passes.

MAY SPEND $90,000.00

Plan Modern Thoroughfare From Washington to Mount Vernon—Special Election to be Held.

Improvements to the roads of Fairfax county leading south from Alexandria, for 31 miles, to cost $90,000, which will result in a modern thoroughfare practically all the way from Washington to Mt. Vernon, will be decided by the voters of the Mt. Vernon district of Fairfax county at a special election to be held on November 4th. Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, entered an order yesterday calling for an election to decide on a bond issue of $90,000 for the purpose of paying for the road improvements.

The roads to be improved and their length is as follows:

Telegraph road, from railway crossing at Alexandria to Accotink Creek, eight and six-tenths miles; Pohick Church to Gum Springs, seven and four-tenths miles; Gum Springs to O'Sullivan's Store, at city limits of Alexandria, via river road, four and seven-tenths miles; Gum Springs to O'Sullivan's Store, via Gravel road, four and five-tenths miles, Rolling road, Pike Run to Franconia, six miles.

All of the roads are to be of the macadam construction and none are to be less than forty feet in width.

It is confidently believed that the bond issue will be passed by an overwhelming vote as all of the large property owners in the Mt. Vernon district signed the petition asking Judge Thornton to call the election.

BRISTOL POSTOFFICE.

Order Discontinuing it Has Been Revoked.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 26.—Postmaster-General Burleson advised Senator Swanson that after a conference with President Wilson to consider the report of the inspector upon the proposition to close the Bristol, Va., postoffice, it has been decided to rescind the order discontinuing the office.

This ends a long fight on the part of the citizens first to establish a separate office on the Virginia side of the line and then to have it continued. During the closing days of the Taft administration, a report made to Postmaster-General Hitchcock as the result of a resolution introduced in the senate by Senator Luke Lea to have the Virginia office investigated, strongly favored the discontinuance of the office.

Delinquent Husband Promises to Do the Best He Can in Future

Robert Wallace, a paver by occupation, was before the Police Court this morning, to answer charges of habitual drunkenness and failure to provide for his wife and three small children.

The wife, like most women, under such trials, was willing to give the delinquent another opportunity if he would promise to get work and do his part towards his family.

Wallace, upon being asked if he would in future deport himself in a proper manner towards those dependent upon him, said he had been ordered by the doctor to take at least three drinks of whiskey a day, and he averred that he is suffering from paralysis.

After further questioning, he was allowed to depart with the positive assurance that should his wife be compelled to make any further charges against him, he would be sent to jail for ninety days subject to roads service.

Sergeant Scott found Wallace drunk and helpless on Prince street, near Royal, last night.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

ONCE BELLE; NOW IN NEED.

Mrs. Grinell, Who Was Also an Actress, Faces Poorhouse.

New York, Sept. 26.—Once a Virginia belle, later an actress and owner of a play, but now 83 years old and alleged to be penniless, Mrs. Addie Grinell, of 376 Lexington avenue, Brooklyn, has the poorhouse staring her in the face. Magistrate Hylan, in the Gates avenue court, was asked by Eloise West, of 349 Rutledge street, to send the aged woman away as a vagrant. The magistrate said he would think it over.

Mrs. Grinell denied that she was without means of support, asserting that she owns four lots of land in New Jersey, but the complainant, who was described by Mrs. Grinell as her "favorite niece,", insisted that there was no one to take care of the aged woman any longer.

"I was born in Virginia 83 years ago," said Mrs. Grinell, "and at one time I was an actress of note. I appeared with Edwin Forrest, the great tragedian, and later I owned a play called My Wife. I have been well off at some time of my life; in fact I have had two fortunes, but lost both. My son is now in Alaska and if he knew of this he would certainly help me out."

Magistrate Hylan paroled her until next Thursday.

Mrs. Laura C. Perry Dead.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Mrs. Laura C. Perry, widow of Pierce Perry, died at the home of her son, John M. Perry, early yesterday morning. Mrs. Perry was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McKay, of Luray, Va., and came to Washington three years ago to live with her son. She is survived by seven children—Misses Nellie and Lulu Perry, Mrs. F. A. Allnuth, Mrs. H. L. Bushong, Jno. M. Perry, A. H. Perry, and J. N. Perry. The body was taken to Luray for burial.

RICHMOND GAS DEAL.

Baltimore Concern Proposes to Lease City Plant.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 26. — The Southern Gas and Electric Company, of Baltimore, offered a proposition to the committee on grounds and buildings of the City Council yesterday afternoon to take over the city's municipal gas plant under a thirty-year lease, agreeing to pay therefor $140,000 annually and 1 per cent of the gross receipts during the life of the lease. The company agrees to expend not less than $1,000,000 for improvements of service during the first three years and agrees to give bond of $500,000 for the performance of all obligations.

For the next ten years the company proposes to sell gas at 80 cents per 1,000 feet and after that time at not exceeding 75 cents per 1,000. The rate now charged by the city is 80 cents. Under the provisions of the charter of the City of Richmond the proposition must be submitted to a vote of the taxpayers before the council can take definite action.

BUGGY SHAFT PUNCTURES BOY.

Coasting on Bicycle, Youth Receives Stab Through Lung.

York, Pa., Sept. 26.—Coasting down a hill on his bicycle and colliding with a buggy, 17-year-old Clarence Myers, of New Oxford, was probably fatally injured when a shaft penetrated his right lung. The boy was brought to the York Hospital, where an operation has been performed on the chance of saving his life.

VIRGINIA POSTMASTERS.

Republicans Join With the Democrats in Praising Wilson.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 26.—Notwithstanding the fact that only a few scattering Democrats are sitting in the joint convention of the Virginia and North Carolina Postmasters' Associations which convened here in annual sesson yesterday, the postmasters applaud with great enthusiasm a notable tribute paid to President Woodrow Wilson by C. F. Mc Kesson, a Republican postmaster of Morgantown, N. C.

Mr. McKesson said that while he was not swerving in the least in his loyalty to the Republican party he wished to say there is now occupying the Presidential chair at Washington the greatest chieftain the nation has ever had since the days of Thomas Jefferson.

This declaration was made by Mr. McKesson in a striking response for the postmasters of North Carolina to the address of welcome which had just been made by Mayor Wyndham R. Mayo, of Norfolk. Mr. McKesson's address was one of the features of the opening session of the joint convention, the business meetings of which are being held in the parlor of the Monticello Hotel.

The joint convention opened at ten A. M. with about 150 Virginia and North Carolina postmasters of the first, second and third class in attendance. Secretary McKinney, of the Virginia association who was instrumental in bringing about joint convention at Norfolk expressed the belief that as many more will be here by night.

S. Brown Allen, postmaster at Staunton, Va., president of the Virginia association, and W. W. Rollins, postmaster at Asheville, N. C., president of the North Carolina Association, are presiding over the deliberations of the two bodies jointly.

S. Brown Allen opened the convention and the invocation was by Rev. Dr. Sparks W. Melton, pastor of Fremason Street Baptist Church. Mayor Mayo delivered a very fine address of welcome and was warmly applauded.

The response for Virginia was by R. A. Anderson, postmaster at Marion, Va., and Charles Pilchard, postcaster at Front Royal, Va.

The response by Postmaster McKisson, of Morgantown, for the North Carolina postmasters, was followed by the annual address of Prest. Allen, of Virginia, and President Rollins, of North Carolina.

First Assistant Postmaster General, Daniel C. Roper, and other departmental officials, who are expected from Washington, found at the last moment they could not come, and so wired Postmaster Clinton L. Wright, of Norfolk. Other pressing business prevented their attendance.

The postmasters adjourned at one o'clock in the afternoon and left for Cape Henry, where they enjoyed an oyster roast provided by the Norfolk Conventions Association. This afternoon the visitors were given a boat ride. The convention will be in session through Saturday.

LIGHT AT FAIR GROUNDS.

Vast Inclosuhe to be Made Brilliant During Big Exhibition in October.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 26.—Twelve enormous electric search lights placed on the top of the ampitheatre will be used in making the Virginia State Fair grounds as light as day during the six nights, beginning October 6. These searchlights will supplant the various arc and streamers of smaller lights scattered throughout the grounds, and the rays from them will penetrate every nook and corner of the vast enclosure.

Chief among the pyrotechnic displays will be the "Battle af Santiago," which will cost $1,000 an hour to present. Twelve great battleships will be seen in action, and one of these will be destroyed by a submarine destroyer, following a lavish display of rockets, bombs and fiery novelties, the like of which has never been equalled in brilliancy.

Another night attraction will be the singing from the stage in front of the grand stand of Miss Helen Mae Hammer, the celebrated soprano, who has a voice reputed to carry its sweetness beyond the limits of the grounds. During the morning and afternoon Miss Hammer will sing in the administration building, as will also Miss Helen DeNour, a soprano.

The singing feature of afternoon and night at the grandstand will be similar to a cabaret show, only more startling and beautiful. Featuring this act will be Martin Delaney, tenor, and Miss Florence Henik, soprano, while Hugh Blaney, the comic singer, will pitch his voice against the combined efforts of May Gay's band of 25 soloists. These singers will also be supplemented in their work by Misses Hammer and De Nour, making as a whole an array of song birds whose talents have not been equalled at previous fairs.

The lover of graceful, wonderful dancing, will be entranced when "Patrecia," the dancing sensation of Europe, trips onto the stage in front of the grandstand each afternoon and night. Director Anderson, who recently returned from an European trip made especially to secure something new for the eighth annual state fair, says he has seen many dances, but none that can compare with Patrecia.

Peolia, an Italian aviator, will come to Richmond to make two flights daily in his 60-horsepower Curtiss biplane. Prof. Hutchinson, who makes two balloon ascensions daily, and in one fall from the skies, uses 12 parachutes, thought the Italian aviator would make a greater attraction for Richmond than Art Smith, the eloping aeronaut, because the Italian has made good in every place he has appeared and is one of the most sensational biplane manipulators in America today.

Among other attractions will be Ferrari's trained animal show, the Jolly Harvesters, gymnastic comedians, Oklahoma Bill's Wild West show, Staine's Comedy Circus, Captain Sorcho's Sea Divers, Pattee's Diving Girls, trapeze performers and dozens of other features, which will combine to make State Fair week one of entertainment and fun.

PRESENT CONDITIONS IN TENNESSEE.

The present political turmoils in Tennessee bring to mind similar conditions in by-gone years in that state. Andrew Jackson passed through scenes in Tennessee which are among the most thrilling in American history, and later Andrew Johnson, when the secession movement was at its height, had to face serious issues, sometimes risking his life. Jackson was shot and seriously wounded in the streets of Nashville, and on one occasion Johnson narrowly escaped lynching. During the latter's sway as military governor of Tennessee, he ruled with an iron hand and while he was condemned by the disunion party he was applauded by others to whom secession failed to appeal.

The old state is again passing through troublous times.

Every policeman on the Nashville force was sent to Capitol Hill yesterday to guard against violence in the Tennessee House of Representatives. Trouble was anticipated when Speaker Stanton attempted to call the Legislature to order at 11 o'clock. Mayor Howse appeared personally in charge of the policemen. He said that if rioting broke out, which the police couldn't handle, he would call on the Governor for troops to prevent bloodshed.

Apart from the political issues which have produced so grave conditions, the following from the Nashville Tennessean is significant:

"How many of our readers grasped the full significance of the list of cases set for trial at the forthcoming term of the Davidson County Criminal Court which appeared in these columns last Wednesday? In that list appeared 32 names of persons who are to be tried on charges of murder. Some of these cases have been in the courts for a long time, but others are very recent. Six women and 26 men are defendants in these cases.

"Is this a record to be proud of? Rather is it not one that should make every decent citizen hang his head in shame? Is Davidson county a slaughterhouse?

"Human life has become about the cheapest thing known in this section. A man tires of the scarlet woman with whom he has associated and she promptly gets a gun and sends him to the grave. Whisky robs a man of his reason, and with the revolver purchased in defiance of the law he runs amuck and leaves a trail of blood and death behind him.

"Thirty-two men and women facing charges which, if established to the satisfaction of juries, mean the gallows. What do the citizens of the county think of that? We are boasting of our civilization, of our religious institutions, of our schools and charities. What of our record as to crimes of violence?

"This is a matter that should make urgent appeal to the conscience of every thoughtful man and woman. Murder can never be checked as long as the law is sneered at. Open and notorious violation of legal inhibitions in one matter breeds the same attitude toward all others.

"Whosoever sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed." If that were carried out to the letter, what a spectacle would this county present to the world! Thirty-two executions as satisfaction for those who cry from the grave for justice. The mere thought is appaling. And yet because the murders for which these men and women have been indicted were scattered over months, most of them are forgotten until the newspapers announce that the trials are to begin."

FEATURE OF THE FAIR.

Pamunkey Indians to Re-Enact Dramatic Rescue by Pocahontas at State Fair.

One of themost interesting features of the State Fair this year will be th exhibit of the Pamunkey Indians. Chief Cook will bring his tribe from the reservation and they will give demonstrations enacting scenes of real Indian life. They will give a portrayal of the scenes surrounding the attempted execution of Captain John Smith, when he was rescued by Pocahontas.

The exhibitions will be held in a large tent near the entrance. A small admission fee will be charged. The proceeds will go toward building a church on the reservation. Lee Todd has been engaged to manage the show for the Indians.

This tribe of Indians is one of the oldest in America and has many traditions. It is the Virginia tribe after which the Pamunkey River in this State is named.

What is believed to have been a skillfully laid plot to assassinate the Portuguese premier, Dr. Alfonso Costa, and members of his family has been frustrated by the arrest of five men in the act of hiding bombs close to the premier's villa at the seaside resort, Praia Das Macas, near Cintra.

The Opportunity
The TEMPLE School
—OF—
Shorthand & Typewriting

lays particular stress upon the fact that the success of a pupil depends upon the co-operation of three parties—the pupil, the teacher and the parent. Mrs. Caroline B. Stephens, the principal of the Temple School, emphasizes the fact that there is nothing more easily slighted than teaching. The pupil is not in a position to realize that he is not being properly taught. His parents very often discover it when months and in some cases, an entire year has been wasted. The parent should make it his duty to carefully select a school. Inquiries should be made to find the standing of the school in the business world, for every business school earns its reputation through the work of its individual pupils. Once a pupil is entered in a school, it is the duty of the parents to see that the pupil attends the school regularly, and that the work assigned to be done at home is prepared.

The Temple School gives its pupils the opportunity to obtain a thorough business training.

ABUNDANT MARKET SUPPLY.

Fine Fruits And Vegetables Are Arriving.

On the market stands today and tomorrow will be displayed some very fine peaches, probably the best that this season affords. Prices are now as low as may be expected this year. White heath selling for $2.00 per half bushel basket, the freestones being cheaper, selling for $1.25 per basket. Fine damsons sell for 5c cents a basket. The fall crop of cantaloupes is now coming in. They are quoted at 15 cents each, or two for 25 cents, and in flavor and in quality they far surpass the cantaloupes of the early part of the season.

Quite a supply of pears is now displayed. Prices range from 10 cents to 50 cents a basket, according to size.

The sweet corn now coming in seems to be much better than the offerings several weeks ago, the late crop having had better conditions for growth. The price is 25 cents a dozen. Plenty of vegetables of most varieties are displayed for sale and prices may be said to have undergone no change from last week.

Florida pineapples are now becoming more plentiful, and a few of the new crop Florida oranges are beginning to arrive. Fine apples are also a feature of this week's market, the price being 15 cents a quarter peck for the best.

In meats, the market shows no material decline in quantity or price. The best cuts of beef, such as steak and chops, bring 22 to 35 cents a pound.

Lamb is plentiful and cheap for the season of the year, when meat usually goes up, but so far it is showing a tendency to remain stationary. The dealers in some cases have to pay a few cents more for their meats, but they have not raised the price to the consumer.

PICKETT'S MEN TO MEET.

Survivors of Command Will Hold Reunion During State Fair Week.

Richmond, Sept. 26.—Pickett's men who were at Gettysburg are to hold a reunion in this city during fair week. Major W. W. Bentley, president of the association, has directed Colonel Charles T. Loehr, the secretary, to arrange for the meeting with Pickett Camp.

It is declared in the formal notice that "matters of importance to its history, especially to supports on the left at the battle of Gettysburg," will come up for consideration, and it is desired to get the facts of those who were there to make correct history.

The meeting will be opened at 8 o'clock p. m., in the hall of Pickett Camp on October 10th.

AFTER PASSING YEARS.

Alexandria Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth Here is an Alexandria story that has stood the test of time It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us

Mrs W. J. Whalen, 1103 Prince St., Alexandria, Va., says :"I willingly repeat the statement I gave for Doan's Kidney Pills some time back, as it is all true. I never let an opportunity pass to recommend this remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a constant pain the small of my back. After I took them my health was better and I had no more dizzy spells or headaches.' '

Mrs. Whalen is only one of many Alexandria people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Whalen had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. NEWS IN BRIEF.

The mansion at Clinton, Ill., erected 40 years ago by Col. Thomas Snell, yielded another sensation yesterday, when it was learned that the skeleton of a child in a homemade coffin had been found skillfully concealed within a wall. Wreckers tearing down the residence made the grewsome discovery, which adds another chapter to the stormy history of Col. Snell, who died about seven years ago, and for whose fortune a famous fight was made in the courts of Illinois. The body of the child had been buried in a starch box with a sliding cover, which easily opened, exposing the bones when the house wreckers found it.

Dr. Roland D. Jones, specialist in rheumatic diseases, and reputed to be a millionaire, died suddenly from heart failure while driving his automobile in crowded upper Broadway, New York, last night. In his last instant of consciousness, Dr. Jones brought his car to a stop, averting a possible serious traffic accident, and then dropped dead beside the steering wheel.

Relatives of Lieut. Thomas F. Loudon, at Carbondale, Ill., are in receipt of a letter from Puerto Princess, Philippine Islands, telling of the brutal murder of Loudon's wife their 14-month-old child, and the wife's brother, by Moros.

SHE WILL BE A NUN.

New York Woman Has Daughter Arrested to Prevent it.

New York, Sept. 26.—Mrs. Gusttav Aubach, of 2030 Webster avenue, the Bronx, took her 18-year-old daughter Hannah, who has just entered a convent, to the Morrisania Police Court yesterday and there charged her with stealing dresses and other apparel worth $25. Magistrate Breen, after listening to the mother's story, said the charge was absurd. Mrs. Aubach explained that she wished to prevent her daughter from becoming a nun.

"Your daughter is of age," said the magistrate, "and she probably has as much sense now as she will have three years from now."

The girl left home July 19, and it was some time before her parents learned that she went to the Urssuline Convent, at One Hundred and Ninety-eighth street and Marion avenue. The Rev. Patrick Breslin offered testimony to show that the girl entered the convent of her own volition. The magistrate dismissed the case, and the girl walked out without looking at her parents.

In the District Court of the United States for The Eastern District of Virginia.

At the second September Rules, 1912, held in the Clerk's Office of the said Court, at Alexandria, Virginia.

United States of America to the use of Hugh Reilly Co., a corporation, Plaintiff.

vs At Law

Baltimore Bridge Co., a corporation, and American Fidelity Co., a Corporation Defendants.

On motion of the plaintiff, by its attorneys, supported by affidavit filed in this suit, it is ordered, that all creditors, if any, of the Baltimore Bridge Co., a corporation, for labor and materials furnished and supplied in connection with the construction and completion of three steel towers for the wireless Telegraph Station at the United States Reservation, Arlington, Virginia, under a certain formal contract, under seal, between said Baltimore Bridge Company and the United States of America, dated June 13, 1911, are hereby notified, in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, that suit has been instituted herein by the United States of America to the use of Hugh Reilly Co., a corporation, claiming to have furnished and supplied materials used in the prosecution of the work under said contract, and wherein recovery is sought under the certain writing obligatory, entered into by and between said Baltimore Bridge Company, as principal, and the American Fidelity Co., as surety, to secure the performance of said contract, as well, also to secure prompt payment of claims to all persons supplying labor and materials in the prosecution of said work in the penal sum of Thirty One Thousand, Six Hundred and Sixty-Three Dollars($31,663).

It is further ordered that any and all creditors of the Baltimore Bridge Company, if any there be, in the matter of the construction and completion of the three certain steel towers aforesaid, intervene in this action, file claim herein, and be made party thereto, on or before the Second Rules in October, 1913, to be held in the Clerk's Office of the said Court on the Third Monday in October, 1913; provided, a copy of this order be published for three successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, before said day.

WITNESS the Honorable Edmund Waddell, Jr., Judge of the District Court of the United States, this 23d day of September, 1913, and in the 137th year of the independence of the United States of America.
